

XM Radio offers a vital service by offering Weather and Traffic reports on their network. These services offer vital information for commuters in the New York Metro area as well safety information. XM radio should be allowed to continue these important services.